2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

The institution practices teaching methodology that focuses on imparting education through a student centric approach. For enhancing learning experience, the faculty members adopt several methods such as lectures, interaction, discussions, project and fieldwork. Internal assessments are designed to encourage the students to work independently. Written assignments are part of the learning process where students are guided to carry out research on assigned topics and submit the same for evaluation. This enhances their confidence and writing skills to a great extent. Paper presentation is another component of internal assessment, where the students present their paper before the class. This exercise helps them in overcoming stage fright and in developing their oratory prowess.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The students are evaluated on the basis of continuous internal assessment which includes three criteria (assignment, class test and presentation) and their performance in the end semester examination. The CIE is spread out through the whole duration of the semester session. Keeping in view that the institution caters to students with different range of cognitive ability; time is spared to enable students with low cognitive ability to improve their grades. Attendance percentage of the student is given equal importance; and apart from this, the involvement of the student in various co-curricular activities and extension services are also taken into account. Since education lays emphasis on the all round development of the student, the institution recognizes not only the academic performance of the student but also their attendance and active participation in extracurricular activities.

Assignments and test papers are evaluated and discussed with the students. The internal assessment grades are brought to the knowledge of the students beforehand to enable them to improve their grades should they lack behind. Students can approach the teachers freely with their grievances which are normally considered and addressed accordingly. The students can also approach the Principal freely with regard to any grievances they may have.

Overall, the institution makes an effort to create a student friendly environment so that no one feels left out.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

Any grievances relating to internal assessment or internal end semester examination is taken care of by the concerned department in the knowledge of the Vice-Principal who is in-charge of the Examination cell. Working in tandem with the VP, the head of the department and the subject teacher tries to find a solution to the problem. Normally, all issues, except in the case of erratic students, are settled with transparency and efficiently.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

The institution is affiliated to Nagaland University and follows the curriculum as prescribed by the university. The curriculum is framed by the Board of Under- Graduate Studies under the University for the whole course. The curriculum provides details on what the student will achieve on completion of the course; and what the student will learn on completion of each syllabus.

The teachers are aware of the detailed syllabus of their subjects and how to deliver the same to the students. Every syllabus is provided with the number of contact hours and the weightage it carries for every unit of the syllabus.

The curriculum and syllabus is displayed on the college website for information. It is communicated to the students during the orientation class to each semester and during the introductory class for each syllabus.

For any doubt expressed by the students, the authority and teachers are readily available to assist them.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

The continuous internal evaluation process is the yardstick for measuring the progress of the students and incidentally the attainment of programme outcomes and course outcomes. Every subject teacher keeps track of the performance of their students and adopt corrective measures to tackle with the problems faced by the students.

Tutorial and remedial classes are held to help the weaker students. Study materials with simple presentation are provided to the students for assistance.

It has been observed that providing study materials with simple explanations has helped improve the performance of some of the students.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The institution practices decentralized and participative management through involvement of department head and faculty in decision making and delegation of works related to various activities of the college. All the departments of the college function under the direct supervision of the Principal. The daily activities (academic) of the department are taken care of by the Vice Principal and HoDs. Examination related activities and all academic matters are handled by vice-principal.

The administrative units are decentralized in such a way that power is not vested with a few individuals. The office administration is headed by the senior Head Assistant and each staff is assigned with specific work. However, all major decisions or changes are taken only after discussion and with the final approval and consent of faculty body. Under the direct supervision of the Principal, administrative establishment, examination, library and all academic departments are functioning. At regular intervals different committee members conduct meetings to discuss various issues and the resolutions made are passed on to Principal for further action.

Various committees are also in place to monitor different tasks and to review the progress of the same and accordingly take necessary, timely action for ensuring excellence in respective areas.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

All teaching and non-teaching staff are assessed annually by means of Annual Performance Assessment Report (APAR) which is reviewed and evaluated by the reporting officer (Principal) and forwarded to the Government. Every employee's performance is assessed yearly after completion of one academic year. Systematic evaluation of the performance of employee is done to understand the ability of a person for his/her further growth and development. There are different parameters to assess the performance of teaching and non-teaching staff. Faculty members are assessed based on the APAR submitted after self assessment. The parameters of assessment include a brief description of duties, exceptional contribution if any, factors that hinder performance and the skills that are required to be upgraded through training programmes. The APAR Performa filled by the faculty is checked and verified by the Reporting Authority for ratings and grading. It is then sent to the higher authority for final grading. Performance Appraisal System has helped the college to assess the performance of employees. The systematic procedure has helped the Management to motivate the employees for better performance. It helps the college to analyze the strength and weakness of the employees in its attempt to provide the best to the students.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

1 .MENTORING

To develop better understanding of the students' background, area of interests and their potential.

Majority of students come from far flung villages of their district, many of whom board in rented houses without proper supervision exposing them to unwanted elements. This was reflected in the low attendance and ultimately in their end semester result.

Mentoring sessions are done during free periods, on Saturdays and even outside class hours, if necessary. The principal himself mentor students especially erring students. The bio-data of all the members are made available to the mentors.

A positive change in the behaviour, attitude of students and improvement in mentees discipline, interaction and communication skills and in students attendance has been observed.

Time constraint and counseling aptitude on the part of the mentors are also some of the problems encountered.

2. DISCIPLINE ENFORCEMENT

-To uplift and to develop them as a balanced citizen in the society.

Discipline is enforced in the classroom, library, and canteen and within/ outside the campus. Students failing to abide by the rules are dealt with accordingly.

Attendance is tracked regularly to check truancy occurrences of which are brought to the notice of the authority, the mentor and the parents concerned.

There is a marked improvement in class attendance, academic performance and behavioural attitude of the students.

The shortage of CCTVS in the classroom and at the locations makes it difficult for the mentors to track the activities of the students throughout the day.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The College is committed to providing quality education to its students and to prepare them to face the challenges of a rapidly changing world. In today's world, lack of proper education and training restricts people from accessing opportunities for employment. Thus, skill development has become imperative for a person to adapt, survive and succeed. It enhances employability of a person. Recognizing this emerging trend, the college lays emphasis on promotion of skill development programs and activities.

An initiative taken up by the college is the introduction of Certificate Course in Floriculture under RUSA in 2019. It is a skill enhancement/development project. The course is given as part of vocational course for 6th Semester students. On successful completion of the course, certificates are given to the students. Altogether thirty eight(38) students successfully completed the course in 2022
